

QUALIFICATION:- A Level

You will study the following units:-

Pearson Edexcel

Unit 1: Britain Transformed, 1918-1997

Unit 2: The USA, 1955-92: conformity and challenge

Unit 3: The British experience of warfare, c1790

Unit 4: Coursework: Independent study focusing on crime and punishment from 1830-1965.

New skills you will learn or develop further:-

- In depth research and historical investigation
- Critical analysis of historical interpretations
- Cross referencing of evidence, and comparison of sources
- Essay writing
- Note taking and summarising
- Debating

Possible careers paths you could follow include:-

Journalist; broadcaster; civil service; lawyer; teacher; researcher; business management; government service; politician; museum curator; archaeologist.

SUBJECT:- History

Entry Profile for your course:-

You will really enjoy this subject if you have a keen interest in the past and want to come to a better understanding of the present.

If you enjoy reading, thinking, researching and gathering evidence then consider History.

Still unsure, then ask yourself

Do I . . .

like working independently and in small groups, debating and presenting?

organise and manage my time effectively?

communicate and write clearly?

want to challenge myself academically?

Entry Requirements:-

To be eligible, you will need 5 A*-C GCSE predicted grades. This must include a minimum of Grade B in History and English. A good command of the English language, and interest in reading in depth is essential.

How will my course be assessed:-

Unit 1 exam = 30% of the total qualification

Unit 2 exam= 20% of the total qualification

Unit 3 exam= 30% of the total qualification

Unit 4 coursework= 20% of the total qualification

When will my course be assessed:-

You will be externally assessed at the end of Year 13 during the summer examination period in 2017.